Dear Hiring Manager,

I am happy to be applying for the post of Software Quality Tester, and I am eager to join PakWheel Company. As a new technical writer/ Tester, I am confident in my ability to offer clear and high-quality technical documentation that will aid in documentation comprehension, good in testing software, writing test cases and know the complete development life cycle of testing making me the greatest candidate for the role. With a Bachelor's degree in Software Engineering and have an experience producing technical documentation, I feel I am qualified for this position.

With a range of software products, in my Final Year Project I was in charge of producing user manuals, technical documentation, testing and technical specifications. I collaborated closely with software developers and project managers to gather information and guarantee the documentation's correctness and completeness.

As a technical writer, I recognize the significance of writing for a large audience that includes both skilled and non-technical users. I have experience developing documentation and testing software that is understandable by all users, irrespective of technical skill.

I am thrilled about the prospect of joining your team and contributing my talents and knowledge to your company's success. Thank you for taking the time to examine my application. I am eager to discuss my qualifications further.

Sincerely,

Usama Bin Basharat
